Ethics, honesty, should be priority

The rot starts at the top. While rank and file Hutchinson Police Department officers fall left and right, has anyone stopped to think that maybe the problem starts a little higher up?

Any organization runs from the top down. If this is true, what does this say about the upper echelon of the police department? Maybe the wrong people are losing their jobs! This "we can do anything we want attitude" filters from the top down.

If ethics and honesty were a priority with the brass at the Hutchinson Police Department, maybe some of these problems could be avoided.
