Letter: Democrats can't handle Trump's victory

What do we want? An end to sanctuary cities. When do we want it? Now. It's time for taxpayers to stop footing the bill for undocumented immigrants who are using America as a flop house.

We have a right to secure our borders from an invading army of foreigners. We must never allow ourselves to be bullied by a minority of indoctrinated, basement-dwelling college brats who are on a rampage. Maybe it's time for the parents who pay the tuition for these overpriced dens of intolerance to start making "baby" pay his or her own way through school. Most of these hypocrites didn't even vote.

President Trump must stay true to the citizens who elected him, not progressive liberals who had their shot for eight long years and blew it.

Things were just rosy when the Democrats thought Hillary was going to win, but now that the unthinkable has happened, they are in full tantrum mode. Elections have consequences. Trump won and, like it or not, his supporters aren't going anywhere.
